The following article, which we find going the founds of the press, describes in a graphic style, a thrilling incident of the Texan war, in which the Hon. Thomas J. Rusk, one of the present U. S. Senators from that State, figured very prominently. The tragedy of Nacogdoches, and the romantic incidents which led to the Texan war of Independence, find their parallel only in the roman history of Lucretia and the elder Brutus. Juan Costa was a person of great influence and bravery in the wild forests; but he fell under the displeasure of Santa Anna, and his minion Pedras, the commandant of Nacogdoches, was sent to arrest him. He arrested Nacogdoches, was sent to arrest him. He arrested Nacogdoches, was sent to arrest him. He arrested Nacogdoches and that gambling on the result of a fight is carried These, as the horse moves, jingle as a thousand mated.—Spirit of the Age.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

WISHING to change my business, I will sell my Turpentine Land, on Lockwood's Folly River, Brunswick County, with a considerable quantity of Farming Land attached. There is cut on the land about 115,000 boxes, and trees enough to cut about 80,000 more; all very convenient to water. Two waggens and team can haul all the Turpentine made on the Land to the Still on the River, whence it can be taken to market, by vessels carrying from 200 to 300 barrels. The Still will also be sold, if desired, with wagon. team, &c. A further description is unnecessary, as persons vishing to purchase can judge for themselves. The above property will be sold on extremely accommodating terms; or I will take, for the Land, the proceeds from the balance of the Trees are cut and well worked. I will also sell a number of likely Negroes Persons wishing to purchase such property, would do well to give me a call.
